

A hero doesn't always wear a cape, or have a batmobile. A hero can be anyone, it can be someone you look up to, or someone who does stuff for the community or country. Everyone can have a hero, and so do I. My hero is Mrs. Gina, You probably are wondering why, and I have tons of reasons why. If you are wondering how I know Mrs. Gina and what she means to me is because she is my neighbor. She does so much stuff for the community it's hard to list all of it. Now I am going to list some reasons why she is my hero.

One of the reasons she is my hero is because she spends a lot of her free time volunteering for Backpack Buddies. Backpack buddies is an organization to feed kids who don't have food other than what they get fed at school. Backpack buddies wanted to help fix this. Mrs Gina helps by ordering tons of snacks, meals all for backpack buddies. She takes so much time out of her daily life to help people. That's one of the reasons why she is a hero.

Another thing she has done for me is whenever me and my family go on vacation, she does the trash, gets our mail for us, our packages everything, and that means a lot to me and my family. Those are some reasons for what she does for the community, but I have not listed reasons why I like her, so let's get to that now.

Every single holiday, she puts up a huge amount of decorations. Which I love. To her it doesn't matter what holiday it is, she will always go all out. The reason why she goes all out is because she does it to make people smile, she makes people smile by how pretty it looks.

There are many things she does that stand out to me but I have one that really was awesome. About a month ago our neighbors, which I was close friends with one of their kids, their father passed away in a tragic car accident. Mrs. Gina helped pass cards all around the neighborhood saying that donations were available. Mrs. Gina, My family, and another neighbor helped raise money for their family.

I have even more reasons why Mrs. Gina is a hero but I have a few more I have to list including that if anyone in our neighborhood is sick, or is unable to take care of their lawn, Mrs Gina and her Husband go over and take care of their lawn. They do it for free, and without people asking.

Those are one of the many reasons why Mrs. Gina is a hero. I hope this inspires you to think of someone that is your hero, and remember a hero doesn't always wear a cape. They can be anyone you look up to.

I hope you enjoyed my essay!

Zara
6th grade
Franklin Academy